Traditional Door Handles Designed for Modern Day Living

The Old English Range

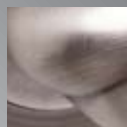

This unique range of traditional lever handles and accessories reflects our architectural heritage and are manufactured to the highest standards, adding a distinctive finishing touch to your project. The Old English Range of levers has been expanded and developed to meet and exceed our customers' requirements.

Whether you are restoring a period property, or trying to create that authentic feel, the Old English products will give the desired effect. From the rugged appearance of the Distressed Silver through to the soft, highlights of the Matt Antique Brass, these levers will compliment both period and contemporary surroundings, yet surpass the expectations and demands of modern living. We hope you enjoy looking through this brochure and that the innovative designs will inspire you.
